11 Defendants.

Case No. 22-cv-05990-HSG (TSH)

DISCOVERY ORDER

Re: Dkt. No. 221

12
13 Non-party Filippatos PLLC moves to quash and for a protective order concerning the 14 subpoena that Plaintiff Zoya Kovalenko served on Defendant Kirkland & Ellis, LLP. However,
15 on March 6, 2025 Judge Gilliam declined to exercise ancillary jurisdiction over Plaintiff's dispute
16 with her former counsel. ECF Nos. 197, 200. Thereafter, the parties stipulated to dismiss this 17 case. ECF No. 220. Accordingly, this civil action is over and nothing remains pending. The 18 subpoena to Kirkland & Ellis is a dead letter, and the firm need do nothing in response to it. There
19 is no need for a court order to grant anyone relief from this defunct subpoena. The Court realizes
20 that Plaintiff has appealed Judge Gilliam's declination to exercise ancillary jurisdiction, ECF No.
21 203, but she will need to win that appeal before anything will be pending in the district court, and 22 she hasn't won it yet. Filippatos's motion is therefore DENIED.

23 IT IS SO ORDERED.
